THOSE OF US WHO have tried to keep up with the Rev. (Ben) Gould pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Campbell for the past 10 years, have generally ended up mighty tired.

And that, friends, is probably the understatement of the year.

Ben, as many of you know, runs when the rest of us walk.

He assumes extraordinary loads of responsibility for worthwhile civic projects in addition to his church work and expects his "cowed" followers to follow the same pace that he uses, which would mean, basically, arising at 5 a.m., scheduling two meetings before 8 a.m. and then trit-trotting all day, including maybe 18 holes of golf, providing it could be sandwiched in between conferences and meetings.

Incidentally, Ben is no different on the golf course.

And we can prove that from experience.

You just never catch up.

He is always ahead of you.

As a "bengouldian" of good standing, or sitting, for many years, we recognize that we will be accused of being predjudiced in our viewpoint about the guy.

We plead guilty on that count.

We first learned the hard way how tough it was to keep up with Ben when we served as president of the Chamber of Commerce.

When Ben was given a CofC assignment, he expected the CofC prexy to work right along with him.

Man, we were tired that year!

In fact, we had to go to the hospital.

Our hospital sojourn was from another cause, but we sorta like to put the blame some place other than where it belongs.

That leads us up to the point of this essay.

KEEPING UP WITH BEN Gould is a full-time occupation, even when he goes to the hospital.

Ben has spent more time in doctors' offices and hospitals than almost anyone we know.

Doctors have done a good job in keeping his engine purring, in face of some rather difficult odds.

But we won't go into that.

For the record, the Rev. Gould was chairman for the fourth successive year of the Campbell Congress for Community Progress held recently. He opened the session on Saturday, then scurried to the hospital where arrangements were made for surgery on his leg on Monday.

But he gave the sermon at the Sunday service at his church. He was operated on at 6 a.m. the next day.

Those of us who tried to catch him at the hospital had to work fast. In fact our "get well card" missed him. He was back home a couple days ahead of schedule.

And he preached at the next Sunday service.

After all it was Easter time.

EASTER IS A TIME FOR meditation and all the Christian churches have special services to mark the joyous occasion of the resurrection.

The Press staff scanned a number of church bulletins to excerpt the information needed for a roundup of the special Easter Week services.

We were especially impressed by the notice in the bulletin issued by Ben's church, the First United Methodist Church, with respect to Maundy Thursday.

On the other hand, after what we have told you, we shouldn't have been too surprised.

We quote:

CAMPBELL—SAN JOSE

Fire departments plan mutual aid

Campbell and San Jose fire department will have a formalized mutual aid agreement for the first time, if the City of San Jose City Council ratifies the agreement that was approved Monday by the Campbell City Council.

The agreement that was presented was drafted by Fire Chief George Maxwell of Campbell and Fire chief John Jones of San Jose and it outlines specific areas that are to be covered by the inter-city pact.

Fire Chief Maxwell submitted that draft to the City Council on Monday and explained that it basically means that San Jose will send a truck company on a first alarm assignment to a building fire in the high value areas within the City of Campbell. The San Jose department will also respond in an event of an emergency that is beyond the capabilities of Campbell to handle alone.

Campbell, on the other hand, will protect a specified portion of the City of San Jose, as if it were part of this city. Maxwell explained that his department would cover the specified area on a single response assignment and providing Campbell has the closer available unit, the City of San Jose would not respond to that area.

San Jose would also respond, if it has the closer unit, and Campbell would not. For emergencies that require more than a single engine company, Maxwell added, both the equipment of San Jose and Campbell would respond.

Chief Maxwell told the Council that he felt that the formal mutual aid agreement had advantages for both cities. He said that the two departments had worked together previously, but on an "on-call" basis.

The agreement will go into effect, the chief said, when the council of both cities had approved it. Campbell's council took action Monday night and San Jose is expected to do so next week.

Building in Campbell shows gain of $3.5 million over last year

Although the building permit total in Campbell for March was down from that of the same month last year, the total for the first three months of 1971 is more than $3½-million ahead, according to Wally Byron, building official.

But, as has been the case for more than two years, there were no single-family residential permits issued.

The total valuation of permits issued for March of this year came to $528,799 as compared to $718,245 for the same month last year.

What brought the total up last year in March was the permit for a 40-unit apartment for $384,416 and one for a commercial building totalling $273,840.

This March the two permits issued for apartments came to $87,220 (both to Jack Margo at 675 West Valley Drive) and two commercial buildings totalled $102,379; a service station at Bascom and Campbell Aves. for $27,379 and the third screen for the Winchester Drive-in Theater for $75,000.

However, the total for apartments this year, after the first three months, is $2.6 million ahead of last year, and the commercial total for the first three months is $725,608 ahead.

In March of this year, industrial building took a big jump with four permits being issued for $305,529, while in March of last year there were no such permits, with only two for the entire three-month period for $98,316, a gain this year in that category of $217,213.

Taking out industrial building permits in March were Coast Paper & Supply, 191 Dillon, $23,261; Tonro Construction, 1077 Dell Ave., $76,125; West Valley Construction, 580 McGlincey Ln., $78,679 and Harley C. Beatty, 1386 Whiteoaks Rd., $127,464.

During March of this year there were three swimming pool permits issued for $11,200 making a total of seven for $25,200 for the three-month period. Last year at this time there had been five pool permits taken out for $16,200.

There were five permits for signs in March totalling $6,350 and 18 for the first three months for $16,360. During the first three months last year there had been 12 sign permits for $7,780.

One of the interesting phases of the building picture in Campbell was in the alterations and additions category. In March of this year only four permits were issued for $14,681 compared to 10 in March, 1970 for $45,864.

However, for the first three months last year, the 28 permits for alterations and additions came to $106,441.

For the first three months this year, there have been 25 such permits issued BUT for $212,804, up more than $100,000!

Accounting for the largest share in this category was the permit for remodeling of The Yardstick, at 2110 S. Bascom, for $136,102-

Rotary plans San Jose - Monterey train trip to aid Morgan fund

Campbell Rotary Club on Sunday, April 25, will sponsor what may well be the last San Jose to Monterey passenger train trip. Proceeds from the day-long family excursion will all be donated to the "John Morgan Fund."

Police Chief John Morgan, 40, was stricken with a massive cerebral hemorrhage on Feb. 15 and has remained on the critical list at Campbell Community Hospital, where he was moved last Thursday.

The Morgan family numbers 10. Campbell Rotarians are joining with other civic and service groups to raise funds which will help to defray heavy medical costs.

Leaving the Southern Pacific depot at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, April 25, the special all-coach train will arrive in Monterey in time for luncheon on the wharf or picnicing on the beach at Monterey.

The scenic special will leave historic Monterey at 3 p.m. and arrive at San Jose by 5:30 p.m.

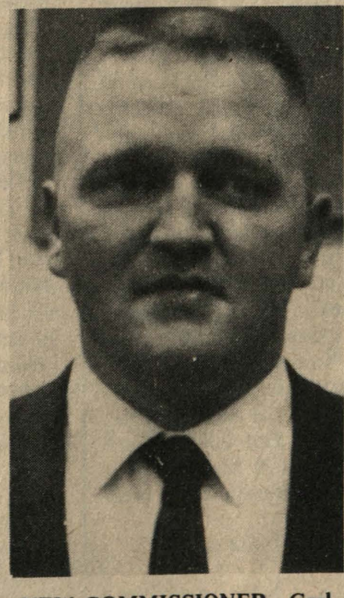
The 150-mile round trip train ride passes through many historic and scenic spots, not visible from the highways and freeways. Stops will be made at such places as Carnadero, Logan, Aromas, Pajaro River Canyon, Elkhorn Slough, Lapis and Gigling.

Billed as what may be the last passenger train ride from San Jose to Monterey, Campbell Rotarians point out that the Railpax takeover of nationwide passenger trains will undoubtedly eliminate all branch line passenger service.

Full fare donations of $10 for round-trip adult fares and $5 for children, 5 to 13 years, are available at stores in Campbell, Chamber of Commerce, travel agencies and Orchard Supply Hardware stores. Rotary Club members are hoping for a sell-out for the 20-car special.

Special committees are planning entertainment and refreshments for all ages on the train. A free trip program and travelers guide will be provided to all ticket holders.

Trip information may be obtained by calling 379-7720, 354-5251 and 292-6282.



NEW COMMISSIONER---Carl W. Larson, 35, of 1525 Hacienda Ave., was appointed to the Planning Commission Monday night by the City Council to fill the unexpired term of Merrill Grim who resigned. The term expires Aug. 1, 1973.

Larson, an outside plant engineer for Pacific Telephone, is a native of Enumclaw, Washington and attended the University of Washington. With his wife, four sons and a daughter, he has been a resident of Campbell for the past two years. He joined Pacific Telephone 15 years ago in Seattle, Washington and before moving to Campbell, lived in Cupertino.

Heated campaign enters final lap in Campbell school district

In what has been termed as the most heated school trustee election in the history of the Campbell Union (elementary) School District, five candidates this week were making their final drive for votes for the election that takes place next Tuesday, April 20.

The County Registrar of Voters reports that 26,086 voters are registered for this election and there will be 22 polling places in the district. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Observers of the trustee hassle vary in their estimates as to what to expect for the voters' turnout next Tuesday. In the past seldom has the trustee voting drawn more than 20% of those registered. It has been as low as 9%.

Some "pros" have submitted a guestimate of as high as 60% turnout for next Tuesday, but 50% or about 12,000 is the figure many of the "experts" are using.

There are two positions open on the board of trustees and two of the candidates, Dr. Richard MacQuiddy and Jim Gilliland, seeking election are incumbents.

But the two incumbents are in opposite camps in this election and sides have been chosen during the campaign. The incumbents are the respective keys with Dr. Robert L. King, a veterinarian, aligning with Gilliland and Bob Lemmerman, a public relations director, running as a "teammate" of MacQuiddy.

Complicating the battle to some extent between the two opposing camps is the fifth candidate, Dr. Ralph Anderson, 40, a corporation president-manager of Future Systems, Inc., in Los Gatos. Dr. Anderson received his bachelor's and master's degree from Brigham Young University and his Ph.D. from the University of California.

Dr. Anderson, who opposes the action by MacQuiddy, which led to the demotion of Neal Royer as superintendent last October maintains that effective action is a MUST to solve the district problems, and pledges financial reforms to prevent tax increases and information credibility from the board. He resides at 13687 Quito Rd., Saratoga.

Much of the heat that has been generated in the trustee campaign stems from the demotion of Royer last October from superintendent to principal.

Three members of the board, MacQuiddy, Ralph Steinberg and Mrs. Eleanor Graham-Armstrong voted on Oct. 8 to demote Royer while Gilliland and Mrs. Judy Ruscigno, the other trustees op-

Voters to name trustees in other districts, too

Although interest has been centered on the Campbell Union (elementary) District in the school trustee election that will take place next Tuesday, April 20, citizens in all the school districts in the area, including West Valley College, will also vote on school board members next Tuesday.

In the Campbell Union High School District, which is made up of Campbell, Moreland, Cambrian, Union and Burbank elementary districts, there are six candidates seeking the two offices that are open on the board.

William L. Murphy is the only incumbent seeking reelection, as E. M. (Doc) Arends is stepping down after 19 years on the board.

In the race are, Mac Martinez, of 1195 Holmes Ave., Campbell, a West Valley College instructor; Dr. Frederic A. Weed, head of the political science department at San Jose State; Ray A. Silva, a life insurance underwriter and former athletic coach; Charlie Cole, 1166 El Solyo, Campbell, a consulting graphologist and Jack A. Schroeder, a research technician.

In the West Valley College trustee election, four incumbents are seeking reelection.

Bob Brydon, Bill Homan and Robert A. Sorensen, are seeking reelection from Area 3 (Campbell Union High School District). They are opposed by Ernest J. Paramo and Sonia Byars.

Don Lindstrom, incumbent representing Santa Clara, is unopposed.

In the Cambrian (elementary) District Ed Carman and William Sartorett are seeking reelection. Opposing them are

For Gilliland -King

The Campbell Press recommends the election of James (Jim) Gilliland, incumbent, and Dr. Robert (Bob) King as trustees for the Campbell Union (elementary) School District in the election next Tuesday, April 20.

ROBERT KING

The Press believes that the election of Gilliland and King will stabilize a hectic, frustrating and disruptive condition that now exists on the board which has been detrimental to the district as a whole.

The Campbell Press is well aware that the Campbell Union (elementary) School District is now badly divided and that it will take strong action on the part of the governing board to bring order out of the chaotic condition that now exists.

JAMES GILLILAND

The Press feels that Jim Gilliland and Bob King can furnish the effective leadership that is desperately needed.

Much of the turmoil in the district stems from the demotion of Neal Royer from superintendent to principal. The action was taken on Oct. 8, by a three-vote majority of the board as it is now constituted.

The Campbell Press has maintained that the three-member board majority, comprised of Dr. Richard MacQuiddy, Ralph Steinberg and Mrs. Eleanor Graham-Armstrong, that demoted Royer last October, acted irresponsibly and without proper consideration of the disruptive consequences that such an irresponsible act would have on the district.

The Press comes to this conclusion based on the reasons that have been released by the board majority as the basis for the demotion action.

The reasons have been, in our opinion, adequately answered by Royer.

Aside from that, however, we maintain that the stated reasons are so woefully weak and flimsy that they give the impression that it was an action of spite instead of with any foundation.

In this respect two salient points must be emphasized.

1) Neal Royer was employed in 1964 as superintendent after serving as teacher, vice-principal, principal and assistant superintendent in the district for 16 years previously.

He was given a four-year contract as superintendent in 1964, and in 1968 the contract was renewed for another four years by a unanimous vote of the board.

Royer's demotion to principal thus in no way affected the contract that was in force. As principal he receives the same salary ($30,000) as he did as superintendent and will until his contract expires next year.

2) Obviously the three-member board majority recognized that their alleged "charges" against Royer were weak, otherwise they would have discharged him as superintendent, instead of placing him in a responsible administrative position in the district. In other words, if Royer was so bad, why keep him?

We hold then that the demotion action of the board majority was an irresponsible act and that Dr. Richard MacQuiddy, as board president, in directing the action showed a lack of understanding of the situation.

We submit, therefore, that because of this failure to show proper leadership in a critical time, MacQuiddy failed his constituents.

Jim Gilliland, an electronic engineer of IBM, on the other hand, along with Mrs. Judy Ruscigno, opposed the board majority action in the Royer case.

We, therefore, feel that Gilliland should be reelected and MacQuiddy rejected next Tuesday. The other two members of the majority on the board are not up for reelection at this time, but petitions are being circulated asking that they be recalled at an election called for that purpose.

Dr. Bob King, a veterinarian, has long been active in school and civic affairs.

He was an active member of the Citizens' Advisory Finance Committee that did much to focus in on the financial problems of the district and to uncover definite flaws in the business side of the district operation.

We feel that Gilliland and King have sincere understanding of the district situation that is unsullied by fractions and friction of militant groups in the district that have become involved in personality conflicts.

The Campbell Press reiterates that the election of Jim Gilliland and Bob King is a necessary step to take, if the turmoil and the conflict that now exists in the district is to be ended.

The Campbell Press urges their election next Tuesday, April 20.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS such as in the Methodist bulletin, are something that we shouldn't emphasize too much.

As a matter of fact, it is a subject we prefer to skip entirely.

There is such a thing as retaliation, you know.

You see, as far as we know, there has never been a newspaper yet published that hasn't had a "typo" in it.

Some of the ones in the metropolitan press have been real humdingers.

And there have been some real dillies in this paper, as we are sure you are well aware.

We shudder even now as we think of 'em.

Surprisingly there have been some caught in the nick of time that would have been even more embarrassing than the ones that have appeared in print.

Glaring errors have even appeared in big headlines, even after at least three people have carefully perused the finished copy.

This brings us to another point.

Recently a sign was placed on the side of The Press building calling attention to the complete printing service that The Campbell Press offers.

The sign was done by Roy Doerr, an outstanding commercial artists.

Roy, who is really part of The Press family, (volunteer status), printed the sign in his spare time.

There was a little delay in getting it up.

Just as the sign was ready to be placed in position, after about five people had admired it and given their okay, a typographical error was discovered. (We guess you still call 'em typo-errors even in a sign).

Roy inadvertantly had left an "e" out of "announcements".

At a summit conference held on the spot, it was decided it would never do to have a misspelled word on a sign advertising the services of the joint.

Potential customers might become a wee bit wary.

And they are too hard to get.

Roy managed to paint in the "e" where it belonged in "announcement" and the errorless sign went up.

Sometimes you can win.

It is always a relief to correct an error before it appears for public scrutiny.

On a sign.

Or in a newspaper.

THIS IS THE LAST ISSUE before the most bitterly fought trustee election in the history of the Campbell Union (elementary) School District. The voting will take place next Tuesday, April 20.

Last week in this column we endorsed JIM GILLILAND and BOB KING for trustees in the Campbell Union (elementary) School District.

we are repeating our endorsement of Jim and Bob in this week's column in order to reach two distinct groups of people: (1) those who read last week's "out-on-the-limb", and (2) those who didn't.

We sincerely believe that the best interests of the school district will be served by the election of Jim Gilliland and Bob King and hope enough of you agree with us on election day.

Is that definite enough?

AFTER LAST WEEK'S column appeared, one of the first calls we received was from a reader who was quite disturbed.

He said he agreed with our endorsement, but had just received his sample ballot and couldn't find Gilliland's or King's name on it, and wondered what he should do about it.

It turned out there really wasn't anything he could do about it.

He happens to live across the line in the Moreland District.

And that's a different ball game.

posed the action.

Royer, at the time of his demotion, was in his second year of his second four-year contract as superintendent. He was appointed superintendent in 1964 to succeed Bill Henley. In 1968 by a unanimous vote, he was awarded a second four-year contract. Prior to becoming superintendent, Royer had served as teacher, vice-principal, principal and assistant superintendent of the district.

Royer will continue to receive his superintendent's salary ($30,000 per year) until his contract terminates in 1972.

One of the basic issues in the campaign has been that the reasons used by the three-member majority in the demotion of Royer were insufficient. The demotion instigated a recall movement against two of the board members, Steinberg and Mrs. Graham-Armstrong, who voted for the demotion.

Petitions for the recall are still being circulated. Recall leaders maintain that they will have sufficient signatures to call a recall election before the deadline.

In addition to the Royer incident, another issue in the campaign has been the report of the Citizens' Advisory Finance Committee which was presented in October and it called attention to financial problems of the district and some of the poor business methods that had been practiced. In a supplementary recommendation, the citizens' committee indicated that the long-time business manager of the District, C.E. Bradley, should be dismissed.

The report also showed that the business manager in many instances had been bypassing the superintendent in fiscal matters and reporting directly to the board.

Dr. King, 43, was a member of the Citizens' Advisory Finance Committee. He served as vice-chairman of that group during the time the committee was involved in researching the financial problems of the district. He is co-owner of two animal medical hospitals and has had 16 years of business and personnel experience. He resides at 15232 Stratford Ct., Monte Sereno.

MacQuiddy, 44, currently the board president, is a psychologist in private practice. He has a Ph.D. from Stanford.

For seven years prior to entering private practice he was head of the psychological services of the Campbell Union (elementary) District.

He was elected to the board in February, 1970, to complete the unexpired term of John Merriell. He succeeded Gilliland as president of the board last year. MacQuiddy lives at 38 Decorah Lane, Campbell.

Gilliland, 39, was appointed to the board in 1968 and has served as clerk and president. He is now vice-president of the board. Gilliland is an electronic engineer at IBM and received his B.S. in electronic engineering from Cal Poly and his master's in business administration from the University of Santa Clara. He resides at 900 N. Central Ave., Campbell.

Lemmerman, 38, who resides at 4725 Del Loma Ct., Campbell, attended Long Beach City College and the University of California, Santa Barbara. He has long been active in PTA functions and is chairman on the board-appointed Policy Revision Committee dealing with business and personnel.

The 22 polling places in the district are: Drown residence, 466 Patton Ave., San Jose; San Tomas School; Hazelwood School; Hamilton School; Castlemont School; Rosemary School; Cypress School; Elizonda residence, 18629 Devon Ave., San Jose; Quito School; Campbell Elementary; Dover School; Ditullio residence, 1850 McBain Ave., San Jose; Monroe School; Sherman Oaks School; Parkway School; Lutheran Church, 1550 Meridian Ave., San Jose; Blackford (elementary) School; Lynhaven School; Marshal Lane School: Westmont High School; Capri School; Del Mar High School;

City "team" to negotiate new contract with disposal compnay

Following the recommendation of City Manager Bob Stephens, the City Council on Monday agreed to negotiate for a new contract with Green Valley Disposal Co. for refuse collection within the city limits rather than solicit new bids for the service.

The new contract is expected to be for 15 years and a hike in the monthly pickup rates is anticipated.

Green Valley (formerly Los Gatos Scavenger Co.) received its first contract from the city in 1952 for a two-year period.

A new agreement in 1954 was for five years as was the third agreement in 1959.

In 1962 a new 10-year agreement was executed, which will terminate next year. The agreement was modified in 1966 to bring the rate up to the present $1.50 per month charge.

In this report to the Council, Stephens commended Green Valley for the consistently high service to the community over the years. He emphasized also that the company had maintained a sound financial condition, and had expanded its service and personnel.

Stephens cited the experience and performance of the company as the prime reason for his recommendation that the contract be extended rather than go out to bid.

Stephens, City Attorney Bob Dempster and Fire Chief George Maxwell were appointed by the Council to negotiate the new contract with Green Valley Disposal.

In other actions on Monday:

The Council denied the appeal of Plog Service Co. and B & B Plumbing relative to a sign that had been painted on the rear of the Plog building facing the freeway. The sign had previously been denied by the Planning Commission and Art Kee, planning director.

The Council also adopted a sign policy for the Los Gatos Creek area that would prohibit signs facing the freeway and encourage the elimination of present signs that are primarily intended to be viewed from the freeway. The sign policy had been recommended by the Planning Commission.

The Council also upheld the Planning Commission's denying the request of L. R. Meeks and C. Bowling for a contractor's storage yard at 270-285 Dillon Ave.

Denied also was the appeal of Laverne P. Lapp of Cal Towing for a permit to do towing services within the city limits. The police department had recommended denial and the applicant failed to appear at the hearing.

City Attorney Bob Dempster was directed by the Council to take the necessary legal steps to evict Ray Stroppa from the city-owned property on Harrison that was previously owned by him.

The Council also granted approval, for one year, for Davey Tree Service to use Maleic Hydrazide as a spray to retard tree growth under power lines on a contract from PG&E.

It was specified that the city would be held harmless from any liability resulting from any action of the spraying and also that the spraying firm would not infringe on private property.

Change orders on the construction of the city hall were approved for $1,297 and the Council authorized $1000 to be spent now for the installation of irrigation pipes in the parking lot at the city hall.

It was pointed out that the lot was ready to be paved but the landscape contract, of which the irrigation pipes would be a part, has not yet been awarded.

Final Council approval was also given the Local Improvement District that takes in Catalpa, El Caminito and California streets. It was estimated that the total project would cost $157,999.55 with the city picking up the tab for $105,383.05 and the property owners $52,616.50.

Of the numerous problems confronting the CUSD, foremost is the direction of the District's future. Problems long brewing have surfaced in recent months. Some were brought into focus by the Citizens' Advisory Finance Committee and precipitated by demotion of the Superintendent. They have been heightened by very irrational and vindictive efforts by some parties to debase and degrade others. There is a taxpayer, parent and teacher outcry as to what the problems are.

The present chaotic state of the CUSD is present and past Board of Trustee's lack of effective district planning and action. The legacy left to future Trustees will require the greatest degree of financial, business, educational experience and patience.

If elected as a trustee, I will present to the Board of Trustees at the first meeting in May, a five-year program which involves all Board Trustees, administrators, teachers, parents and taxpayers to identify and constructively solve the district's problems by priority. Elements of the plan will include:

DELINEATION of long range education goals and objectives to meet community needs.

UPGRADE the business operation for cost savings.

DEFINE financial needs in context of educational objectives and financial resources. Evaluate effect of actions at County, State and Federal levels on financial resources. Thorough preparation of District for tax election by June 1972 to sustain revenue level.

ESTABLISH clear employee negotiations policy and procedures.

INNOVATE administrative reorganization to streamline administrative operation with inservice training.

DEVELOP procedures and tools to equip the district to cope with future problems.

RESOLVE objectively the demoted Superintendent problem by tapping outside-uninvolved evaluation sources.

CONDUCT annual evaluation of district's total operation.

INITIATE local town forum concepts where Trustees, etc. communicate on a grass-roots level with parents and taxpayers.

The district must learn by its past mistakes to shape the future. It is critically important to elect new faces to the Board that have experience and mature leadership that the District so rightly deserves.

The only way that harmony and unity can be returned to the District is by everyone rising above the petty-emotional issues presently plaguing and dividing us. A clearly defined plan of action and operation will provide the means where all can know how to do their part.

Let us turn our pursuits from haggling over who is right or wrong to the pursuit of excellence in responsible education.

Restaurant offers Saturday proceeds for Roger Garcia Fund

A "Roger Garcia Benefit Day" will be held at the Red Barn restaurant in Campbell on Saturday, April 17, it was announced today by William Koehler, supervising manager.

Fifty per cent of the restaurant's gross sales for the day (11 a.m. to 11 p.m.) will be donated to the Roger Garcia Fund, headquartered at the Bank of America's Campbell branch, 125 East Campbell Ave., Koehler said.

Roger Garcia is the 18 year-old Campbell youth who is waging a heroic battle against a form of bone cancer that has already caused the amputation of one of his legs. His case has been termed "incurable" by conservative medical standards.

Roger refuses to accept the diagnosis, and so do his friends, who established the fund two months ago.

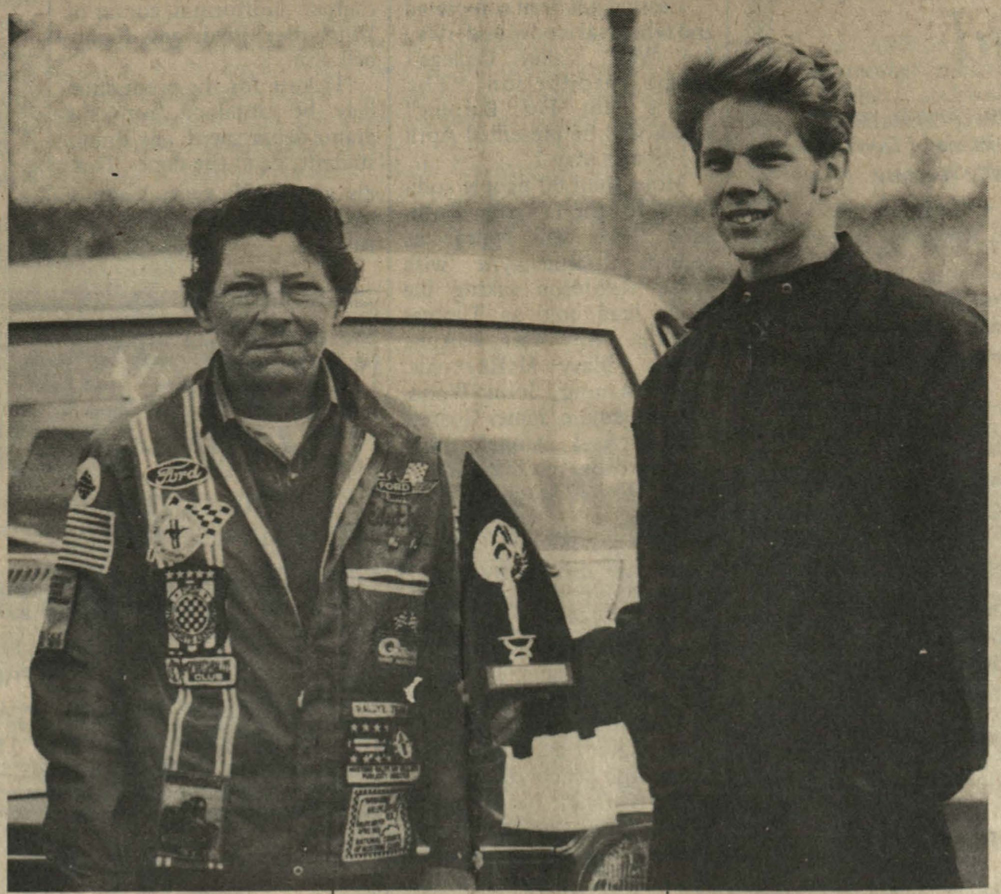
The first donations were used to defray the costs of a one-month stay in England, where Roger underwent treatment with an experimental new drug developed by England's prestigious Imperial Cancer Research Fund.

Roger returned from the trip early in March, his hopes renewed that his three-year battle hasn't been in vain. Although his London physicians say he will have to use the drug for another year, before any conclusive results can be established, they described the first series of treatments as "highly promising."

Roger left England with the encouraging news that blood tests revealed no active cancer cells in his blood stream.

The drug, a synthetic chemical called ICRF-159 for short, has proven successful in halting the growth of malignant tumors and the spread of secondary cancerous cells in mice and rats, but its effectiveness for humans is still being tested.

Campbell's Red Barn Restaurant is located at 851 West Hamilton Ave. and specializes in fried chicken, fried fish and hamburgers.



ROGER WINS TROPHY -- Mrs. Edythe Marks, president of Golden Bear Motorsports congratulates Roger Garcia, plunky cancer victim, on the winning of a trophy following Roger's participation in a go-cart race at Ford Motor Co. recently. Golden Bear Motorsports, one of 255 clubs sponsored by Ford in the country, is having a rally for Roger on Sunday, April 18, commencing at 9:30 from Berkeley and concluding at Beringer Wineries in St. Helena where Roger will greet the participants. The sport car group picks a deserving person each year to benefit from their Rallye Day USA-1971 and this year chose Roger, whose three-year fight with cancer recently led him to seek treatment in Great Britain. Roger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Garcia of Milton Ave., and a 1970 graduate of Campbell High School.

Cancer of the colon and rectum strikes American men and women about equally and is second only to skin cancer in incidence. But the American Cancer Society says almost three out of four persons with colon-rectum cancer could be saved by early diagnosis and prompt treatment. The Procto exam helps diagnose the disease early.

SURVEYING THE ROUTE--- Preliminary engineering work has been started on the fourplex development on the former Gomes Ranch between Latimer and Hamilton, which will be known as Hamilton Downs. Third Street will be extended from Latimer to Hamilton as part of the McKeon development. First Street will also be extended into the tract, but will curve into the Third St. extension. Latimer Ave. which now ends at First will be extended at the same time to Central as a city project.

Talented theater group wins grand prize in county scholarship contest

The Miss Santa Clara County Scholarship fund recently held its first annual talent contest at the Montgomery Auditorium in the San Jose civic auditorium.

Over 250 youngsters up to 21 years of age competed in the preliminaries, from as far away as San Diego. From these acts, 40 were chosen for the finals on March 27.

Prizes in three catagories, by age, ranged from third place certificates of merit to a grand prize of $100 and a trophy for the overall best performance and most entertaining act of the evening.

Winning the grand prize were the Entr'actes of the Cabrini Community Theater. The Entr'actes are the offical touring company of CCT and are comprised of local teenagers who enjoy performing musical comedy and operetta scenes and songs and dances. They are directed by CCT resident director John P. Healy, Jr., who founded them over three years ago.

In those three years, they have toured the Palo Alto Veteran's Hospital, performed two series at Old Town in Los Gatos, given over 150 performances for rest homes, private and public gatherings, parties, and scout groups.

In 1970 they won the Senior Talent Contest at the Santa Clara County Fair, and have a standing invitation to return in the future. The Entr'actes serve as a fund-raising organization for CCT, with the donations for their performances helping to pay for the royalties and production costs of CCT and San Jose Children's Musical Theater, sponsored by CCT, productions, such as their current production of The Emperor's New Clothes to be presented at their theater, the St. Frances Cabrini Hall on Camden Ave. on May 1, 2 at 8:15 and May 9 at 3 p.m. A donation of $1 will be requested.

In addition, the Melo-Dears, the official all-girl touring company of the San Jose Children's Musical Theater (sponsored by CCT) placed third in the intermediate division. This group has been rehearsing only since the end of February, and placed singing and dancing to the George M. Cohan song "You're A Grand Old Flag." The Melo-Dears are comprised of young ladies from 9-14 years of age. They, too, will be performing at local rest homes and gatherings, and used as a fund raiser for the San Jose Children's Musical Theater, although all performances for rest homes and hospitals are without charge.

For further information about the Cabrini Community Theater, the San Jose Children's Musical Theater, or tickets for the upcoming production of the Emperor's New Clothes, complete with the first youth musical theater orchestra in the valley, call 371-0232, 371-0491, or 377-9825.

"Fashion Flair" theme for nursery luncheon and fashions

"Fashion Flair," a luncheon and fashion show at Villa Felice in Los Gatos, is being presented by Campbell Parents Nursery School, a non-profit organization, on April 24 as one of their fund raising activities.

A percentage of the proceeds will go towards the fund for Campbell Police Chief John Morgan, who suffered a cerebral hemorrhage on February 13, and is now at a local convalescent hospital.

Chief Morgan's twins attended Campbell Parents' Nursery School last year and he has been a guest speaker many times at school functions.

Both Country Casuals in Cambrian Park Plaza and Bradley's Hess Monte in Willow Glen will be outfitting the participating mother models for "Fashion Flair," and Kiddie World on Stevens Creek will show their fashions for the children's part of the program.

Fashion show chairman is Mrs. Ralph Caloiaro. Mrs. Art Goodrich will assist with the decor, Mrs. Robert Emery with the raffle, and Mrs. Walter Burke with the children who are modeling.

Mrs. David Wells will be in charge of the participating mother models, Mrs. Donald Pass with the program, and Mrs. Ron Biancalana with publicity.

Commentator for the children is Mrs. David Gray, and for the participating mothers is Mrs. Gordon Berry.

Many local artists and several businesses are donating items for a raffle. Tickets for the luncheon and fashion show are available at $4.00 by phoning 378-3814 or 257-1526.

SUMMER GARB---Mrs. Wendy Gray, nursery school students Kerstin Anderson and Jordan Trudel and Mrs. Ruth Yamasaki wear fashions supplied by Country Casuals, Hess Monte's and Kiddie World for the Campbell Parents Nursery School luncheon fashion show on April 24.

TWO MODELS --- Mrs. Ron Bowron and Jordan Trudel practice their poses at Villa Felice where they'll be modeling for Campbell Parents Nursery School at their luncheon and fashion show on April 24. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the John D. Morgan Fund.

Chairman for the social event is F. F. "Pete" Pierron, 269-9562.

Rounding out the program will be a performance by a brass ensemble, who will play selections by Gabrielli, Pezel, Holbourne, Bartok and Kabalevsky.

Art displays sponsored by college in May

A statewide showcase of the creativity and imagination of community college artists will be on display throughout the month of May at three locations in Santa Clara Valley.

West Valley College is sponsoring the first annual exhibit of community college art instructors. The Triton Museum in Santa Clara will house the oils, acrylics and sculpture; mixed media will be on display at West Valley College's Art Gallery; and watercolors will be shown at Villa Montalvo in Saratoga.

A jury panel of experts in the field of art will make three cash awards of $250 to the winners in each class.

To date over 30 of the state's community colleges have signed up to participate in the show.

A committee working to insure success of the first annual exhibit includes Dr. Jack T. Casey, chairman, former member of the California Arts Commission and an instructor at West Valley; William Deal, coordinator of WVC's Community Services; Foster Lopes, member of the college's governing-board; Mrs. Wallace Hall, representing Villa Montalvo; Dr. Hampton Gillespie, representing Triton Museum; Bert Hermosillo, chairman of the college's humanities and fine arts division; Kenneth Orrett and Jane Cauhape, art instructors at the college; Nancy Wade, chairman of the arrangements committee; and the West Valley College art club.

Famed guitarist will make an appearance here

Brazillian guitarist Laurindo Almeida will perform in a one-night concert at West Valley College May 4 at 8 p.m.

One of the world's great concert guitarists, he is ever being compared to the father of modern classic guitar, Andres Segovia. He brought bossa nova to the U.S. long before it was called that and he has scored many films, often composing, then playing his own music.

His famed recordings include everything from Bach to a beautiful solo album of Broadway favorites.

Critics have said of him "we watched a master weave a spell"..."a fantastically brilliant performer in both jazz and classical styles" and ..."he is a guitarist who must not be missed."

Almeida's appearance at West Valley is part of the college's sixth annual Fine Arts Festival, designed as a showcase for the college's fine arts program. The festival is under the direction of Bert Hermosillo, fine arts division chairman.

Tickets for Almeida's appearance may be purchased through the Office of Community Services, 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell.

Community Leader.....
An open letter from Mac.....
People have asked me, "Mac, why do you want to get into the political arena?" Perhaps I can answer that by telling you a little of my background.
I came from a migrant family who worked in the fields of the San Joaquin Valley. I went to schools there. I came to the Santa Clara Valley 23 years ago where I enrolled at San Jose State College and eventually I received a B.A. and an M.A. degree in education. While there I had some great teachers who went that extra mile and taught me by example, what America and her great ideals meant.
Since then I have had experience as a school teacher, coach, college Ombudsman, as a board member of the Police Athletic League, Released Time Education and Childrens Home Society. This experience has made me aware of the many challenges and problems that face our community. It has also taught me that the awesome tasks that face us in education can be met intelligently and with confidence by you and I, both, working together. I sincerely believe that I understand your concern in the education of our children. I share that concern. It is because of this that I will truly act as a trustee in your behalf.
Now to answer the first question. I believe that I am well qualified for this position and feel confident that I can make a a worthy contribution to our community as it meets the many challenges brought to it by our institutions of education. Let me join you as a partner in the effort to improve our schools. Give me that opportunity. LET ME HAVE YOUR VOTE.

Any job worth doing is probably worth putting off until tomorrow.

Once there was this beautiful Princess, see, and one day she was out awalking in the forest when she came upon this ugly old frog sitting in the pathway. She started to step off the path and go around the frog, when Lo! it spoke to her. "Please don't pass me by", said the frog. "I'm a handsome Prince who has had a spell cast upon me by a wicked old witch, and if you'll pick me up and kiss me the spell will be broken and I'll marry you."

The beautiful Princess was astounded, but she decided, "What the heck, what have I got to lose", and she kissed the frog. Then she waited and waited, but nothing happened. Finally she grew tired of waiting and went home back to the castle.

When she returned home, her mother the Queen asked, "Did you see anything interesting on your walk today?"

"No, not much", replied the Princess. "Well there was one interesting thing. I met that horney old toad you were telling me about". Then they both went off to their appointments with the Royal dermatologist.

CAMP-O-REE

Always a big annual with all Boy Scouts, the Pioneer District Troops will join together for their annual Camp-O-Ree, April 16 and 17 at the Grant Ranch Wilderness Area in the Santa Clara Valley Eastern Foothill area. Scouts and Adult Scouters will all participate in this overnight camp-out event and will compete, display camping skills and enjoy the good fellowship that goes with outdoor living.

Starting off with a two mile backpack trip to the primitive area campsite, all troops in the Pioneer District will spend a day of demonstrating their outdoor skills and will compete with each other on a Patrol level at problem solving contests. Awards will be presented to winning Patrols.

Campsites, cooking, first-aid, and fire protection will be practiced and judged by a group of adult scouters. Particular emphasis will be placed on clean camping habits and wholesome outdoor cooking.

Overall director of the annual event is Lyman Ash, Pioneer District Camping Committee Chairman for 1970-71.

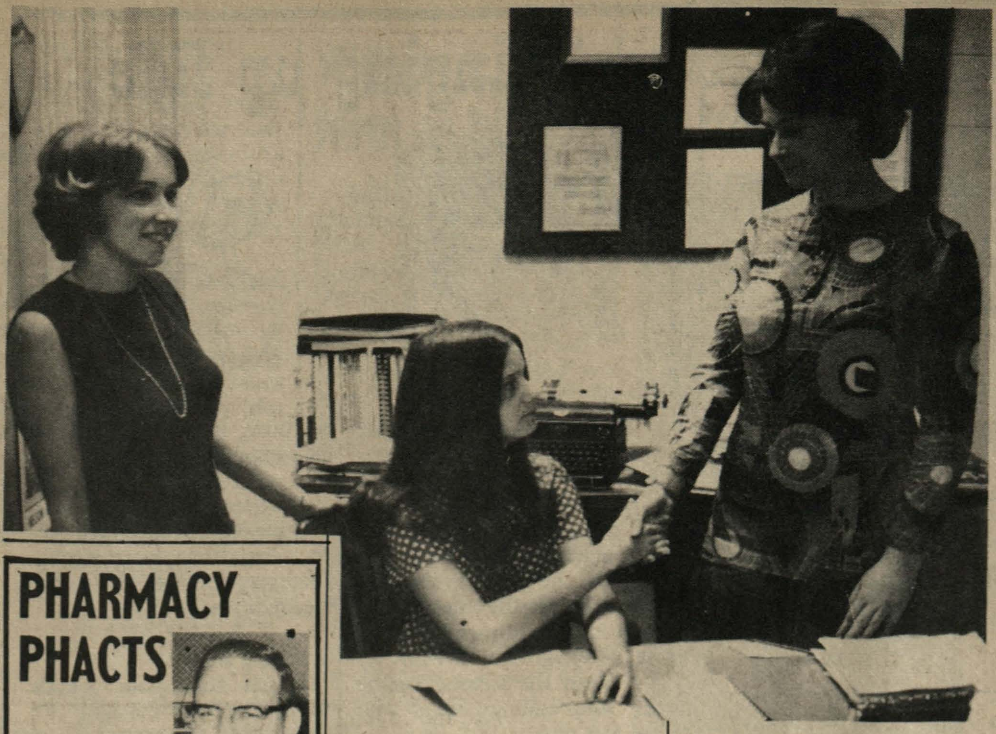
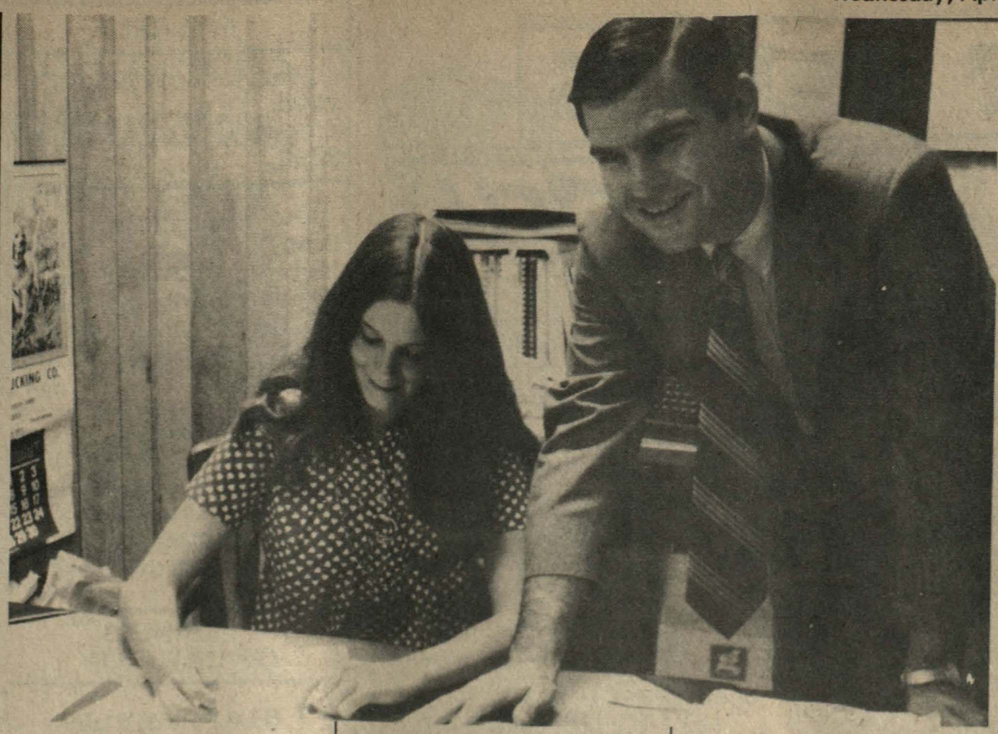
CANCER TREATMENT

The greatest progress in the treatment of breast cancer has come in recent decades. Surgery, radiation, hormone therapy, drug therapy, or combinations of these methods are used successfully, according to the American Cancer Society.



MY BEST WISHES---Bridget Lee, who served as Youth Employment Service director last summer, offers her congratulations to Jean Moore, Campbell High School student who will be helping her fellow students obtain jobs this summer. Jean will have a desk at the Campbell Chamber of Commerce office, 100 W. Rincon Ave.



PLANNING THE SUMMER'S WORK---Nick Roden, chairman of the youth advisory committee of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, shows Jean Moore, newly selected Youth Employment Service director, some of the tasks she'll be undertaking when she "opens for business" in the Chamber office, 100 W. Summer director selected for Youth Employment Service

Each year for the past three years, Campbell has operated a "Youth Employment Service" called "YES" with a desk in the Campbell Chamber of Commerce office.

The aim of YES is to seek out summer jobs for students. Each year a Campbell High School girl is selected by a panel, consisting of Len Edholm, Chamber of Commerce manager; Nick Roden, Chamber youth employment chairman; and John Copper of IBM. For the past two years, Judy Padgett, who served as youth director in 1969, also helped with the selection.

This year's choice was Jean Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Moore, 910 Hazelwood, and a senior at Campbell High School.

Jean will begin manning the desk from 3 to 5 p.m. on April 19. The telephone number is 378-1666, for those who are interested in employing student help.

This is the third year of the program which has provided summer jobs for nearly 300 young people.

On April 22, the Chamber of Commerce and the Campbell Rotary Club will co-sponsor a kick-off luncheon to fund the YES work. The lunch will be held at First United Methodist Church.

Prospect program features atoms

Students at Prospect High School were given a demonstration-lecture sponsored by the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) on atomic energy and its applications during an assembly today.

The program titled "This Atomic World," is designed to acquaint students and faculty with the basic principles of nuclear energy, its sources and role in agriculture, medicine and research.

Richard Bernt, teacher-demonstrator for the program, explained to the students in easily understood terms the structure of the atoms and the operation of nuclear reactors as well as such concepts as radiation, fission and fusion. Specially designated electronic equipment will be used during the 40-minute program.

The presentation is made possible through grants to Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and the Sacramento Municipal District to the Lawrence Hall of Science at the University of California.

PROSPECT PROGRAM---A small cube of uranium-235, only one inch on a side, but yet weighing one full pound, produces the same quantity of electrical power as 2.7 million pounds, or 1,350 tons, of coal. Richard Bernt (above), teacher-demonstrator with the "This Atomic World" program that will appear at high schools in this area during the coming weeks, will discuss this application of the vast energy locked in the nucleus of the uranium atom. "This Atomic World," a U.S. Atomic Energy Commission traveling educational program is presented by the Lawrence Hall of Science in cooperation with Oak Ridge Associated Universities, which operates the program for the AEC.

New computer course taught by Lockheed specialist at West Valley

A course on "Digital Computer Fundamentals" began at West Valley College on Monday, April 12.

The course will run from 7 to 10 p.m. each Monday night through June 21.

Basic fundamentals and analytical methods common to electronic digital systems will be explained during the course. It is designed to provide the student with both practical and theoretical knowledge which can be applied to computer related jobs or used as a foundation for continuing courses in digital systems.

The concepts dealt with in the course can be applied to such jobs as computer maintenance, computer operations, and as background for computer programming. Those enrolling in the course should have at least a beginning knowledge of electronics and high school algebra ability.

Schwinn
. . . for the young in heart!

When you buy a new bike at an "ordinary," non-bicycle store you often have to take the carton home and assemble the bike yourself. Frequently, an additional charge is made for the assembly service. When you buy a bike from us there is nothing ordinary about it. First, it is a Schwinn — one of the world's finest bicycles. Second, we are a factory franchised Schwinn dealer — so you can rely on our service and quality. Third — every bike we sell is assembled, adjusted, and ready-to-ride.

SERVICE? WE'LL TAKE CARE OF IT!
From time to time even the finest equipment requires the steady hand of a factory trained serviceman. If you need help, isn't it a comfort to know we're right around the corner. Whether it's a tire change, or a complete bike rebuilding job, we are ready . . . cheerful, fast, and efficient.

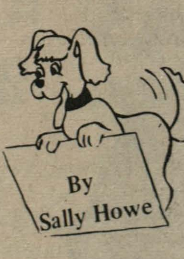
Bringing up fido



The voice on the phone was half-apologetic, half-insistent.

She'd lost her dog.

Unlike the many people who make a few perfunctory calls to the pound, she had been scouring the countryside, haunting the humane society, the veterinarians, driving up and down the streets, placing ads, and calling others who had lost pets.

She did not find her dog.

She did get an education in the attitudes of today's public towards dogs.

She found sick dogs whose owners had apparently turned them loose.

She found puppies wandering the streets with distemper.

She saw dogs who were temperamentally unsound allowed loose.

She discovered people who enjoyed seeing their large dog pounce on smaller ones; or who delighted in "sicking" them on a half starved kitten.

She found people who were concerned at her loss, but she found more who felt the entire dog population should be destroyed.

She found apathy, greed, and sadism and, occasionally, an intelligent human being.

And she called me and asked me why and how she could change people.

If any of you were unthinking enough to give or accept a chicken or bunny for Easter, may I suggest you 1) give him to a farm where such animals are raised 2) make sure that he isn't to be raised as a loved pet now, only to end up in the stew pot later.

Shot time!

Time to check on distemper, hepatitis, leptospirosis, immunizations and anti-rabies vaccinations.

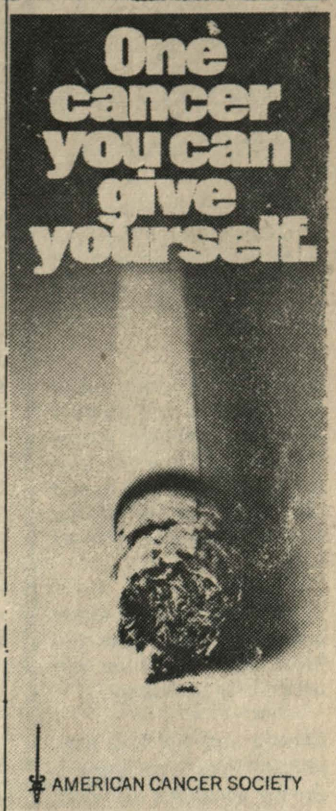
Spring is love.

Watch that your female dog doesn't get "caught" by some neighborhood Romeo.

Keep her inside and give her some of the pills which keep down the scent of her "charms".



One cancer you can give yourself.

TOP STUDENT

Fifteen ROTC cadets at the University of California, Davis, have been recognized for their academic achievements in military science courses conducted during the winter quarter of the 1970-1971 school year.

Of the total, four received the "Outstanding Academic Achievement Award" for attaining the highest standing in their respective military science classes during the quarter.

One of the four receiving top honors was Richard Lohsen of Campbell, a physics major and second year cadet.

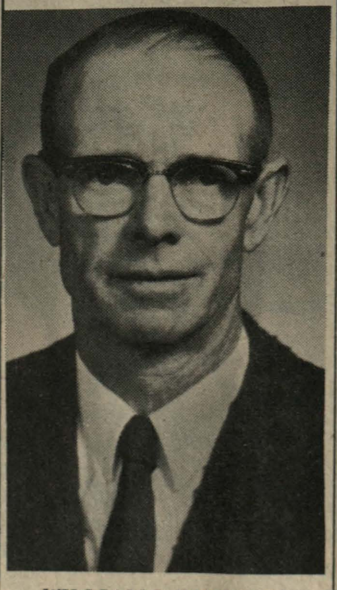
William L. Murphy seeks fourth term as high school trustee



WILLIAM L. MURPHY
---seeks reelection

William L. (Bill) Murphy incumbent candidate for the Board of Trustees of the Campbell Union High School District, is seeking re-election to a fourth term on that Board because, in his words, "as a parent, I want the best possible education for the children of this area; as a taxpayer, I want the most value taxpayers can get for their tax dollar, and, as a citizen, I want to be secure in the knowledge that the ideals of democracy and justice are being handed on to our future electorate."

While on the Board, Murphy feels he has worked to meet these goals and at the same time to maintain a harmonious relationship between the schools and the community as well as between the Board and the employees of the school district.

Murphy is a life-long resident of the Campbell area. He and his wife, Frances, both attended Campbell High School and his two sons, Ray and Bill, both graduated from high schools in the Campbell district. For most of his life, Murphy has been an orchardist, raising apricots in the Blossom Hill area.

Murphy and his wife, Frances, have been married for 45 years. They have two sons. One son, Ray, works with him on the family orchard, while his second son, Bill Jr. is a teacher in Healdsburg, California.

Murphy has long been active in Boy Scouts and youth work. He is now a director of the Sunsweet Grower's Assn., is a member of the Airmen's Assn., and an active member of the Santa Clara County School Boards Assn.

At present, he is serving on the Santa Clara County Committee on School District Organization. He has served for three terms on the Campbell High School District Board of Trustees.

Murphy maintains that local property taxes are now supporting too great a share of the cost of education and other community services. The local property owner, he feels, "cannot be expected to carry a much larger load."

He adds, "I would maintain responsible financial management of our schools to reduce costs without sacrificing quality. At the same time, we should seek to equalize the load between wealthy industrial school districts and low-wealth residential districts such as ours. We must demand that the State of California take a fuller share of the responsibility for education."

Chronic diabetes treatment more effective today

Diabetes, a chronic disease that is becoming more common, can be treated effectively by diet, exercise and insulin, State Public Health Director Dr. Louis F. Saylor said today.

Noting that World Health Day April 7 will be devoted to diabetes, Dr. Saylor said the condition, which is caused by a malfunction of insulin producing cells in the pancreas, is found throughout the world, and has been known since ancient times.

Until 1921, when Canadian physicians Frederick Banting and Charles Best isolated insulin, diabetics had a greatly reduced life span and were forced to live completely changed lives.

"Nowadays, diabetes claims fewer lives than home accidents in California and can be well controlled by insulin or anti-diabetic drugs, proper diet and planned exercise," Dr. Saylor said.

Diabetes occurs when the body is unable to use glucose (sugar) effectively because insulin is not produced in sufficient quantity by the pancreas. In juvenile diabetes, no insulin at all is produced.

Although the onset of diabetes may be symptomless, Dr. Saylor said, early signs may include increased thirst and urination, general weakness, loss of weight and excessive appetite, visual disturbances and skin infections. He urged individuals to consult a physician to rule out diabetes, if such symptoms occur.

Diabetes is increasing because obesity, often a factor in the disease, is on the rise, Dr. Saylor said. Also, young diabetics are now living to adulthood and having children, thus increasing the number of offsprings who will inherit a tendency toward the disease.

Dr. Saylor said recent estimates indicate that at least four million persons in the United States are diabetics, and about half of these are unaware they have the disease.

Tennis pros exhibit at Prospect to benefit athletic department

The third Annual Prospect High Panther Paw's Tennis Exhibition will be held Wednesday evening, April 21 at 7:30 p.m.

In the opening singles Chuck White, last year's number one player from San Jose State and presently the tennis pro at Almaden Swim and Racket Club, will oppose Jack Acheson, a former Nevada State singles champion and a ranked player in Northern California.

In the feature singles Henry Kamakana, former Hawaiian tennis champion and pro at the Los Altos Golf and Country Club, will play Greg Shephard, former San Jose State star and winner of the West Coast Conferences singles and doubles in 1968 and 1969.

A doubles match will follow the two singles Exhibitions.

Ed Roth, tennis pro from Brookside Swim and Tennis Club of Saratoga will be the host for the evening and will explain the play action as it occurs, something which is unusual in most exhibitions.

The Prospect High Panther Paw's is a non-profit father-parent organization and all profits derived are spent to improve, build, or purchase athletic equipment for the school.

The matches will be held in the gym and tickets will be sold at the door. Prospect is located at Prospect Rd. and Lawrence Expressway. General admission is $2.00 and students, 50 cents.

Tax exemptions ends tomorrow

Tomorrow, April 15, is the deadline for persons wishing to file for Homeowners' and Veterans' Exemption claims, according to Dwight Mathiesen, Santa Clara County Assessor.

Mathiesen said that exemptions should be filed with the Exemption Division, County Assessor's Office, 200 W. Hedding St. in the basement of the San Jose-Milpitas Municipal Courthouse.

The Exemption Division is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday to answer questions and accept applications.

Mathiesen related that any mailed application with a later postmark than April 15 will not be accepted.

Because of limited time and a heavy backlog Mathiesen said it would be impossible to mail out any applications.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Planting of 500 trees along one-quarter mile of the Los Gatos creek will be the main feature of the first city-wide workday on Saturday, as a climax to the month-long Campbell Clean-up Crusade, according to civic leaders.

Ralph Doetsch and Homer Hyde, incumbent city councilmen, received a resounding vote of confidence in the city election on Tuesday when they were reelected for four-year terms.

The voters rejected fluoridation of water, the advisory question on the ballot, with 1274 "no" votes to 728 "yes" votes.

TEN YEARS AGO

A 100-year old California furniture firm, with outlets in seven northern California cities, expects to do a $3 million annual business in Campbell, if it acquires the seven acre-Hamilton Ave. site now owned by the City of Campbell. The firm made an offer of $20,000 per acre to the City Council on Monday night.

All indications point to Campbell's long-awaited new post office building (four times the size of the present quarters) to be ready for occupancy by the fall months of this year. The Planning Commission last night (after press time) was expected to give approval to the plans for the new building.

Morgan fund boosted by car wash, community events, youth groups

Larry Thompson, manager of the Robo Car Wash, 2260 Winchester Blvd. has announced that Saturday and Sunday, April 17 and 18 will be devoted to fund-raising for the John D. Morgan Fund.

According to Sgt. John Butler of Campbell Police Dept., contributions to date have exceeded $10,000 and more than $5000 has been paid out.

Thompson is pledging 10¢ per wash of regular proceeds, plus donations of the entire proceeds for every car over the Saturday and Sunday average.

Robo is also distributing coupons which will be good through the end of May at Robos throughout northern California offering an additional contribution to the Morgan Fund.

FLEA MARKET CANCELLED

Hank Batis, co-chairman of a proposed flea market to benefit Morgan, announced this week that the flea market has been indefinitely postponed.

COSMETIC SHOW

Another fund-raising for Morgan has been announced by Golden Gables Distributors, who sell Koscot Cosmetics. Koscot is planning two evenings of cosmetic shows, April 28 and 30, at St. Lucy's Hall. All proceeds from the two shows will be donated to the Morgan Fund.

WINE-TASTING

Two local organizations, Campbell JayCettes and Campbell Parents Nursery School are working on social events which will benefit the Morgan Fund. The JayCettes are holding wine-tasting on Saturday, and the parents group is having a fashion show on April 24.

Other events include a candy sale, train ride, youth dance, grange breakfast, box social, boxing match and orchestra performances.

Groups wishing to have fund-raising events are requested to clear the date with Sgt. John Butler, Campbell Police Department.

THANKS FOR COMING—Don Burr, acting chief of police, is greeted by Larry Thompson, manager of Robo Car Wash. Robo is offering contributions to the John D. Morgan fund this weekend from car wash and gasoline proceeds.

APRIL 20 BOARD OF TRUSTEES APRIL 20

RE-ELECT
DR. RICHARD Mac QUIDDY
ELECT
ROBERT LEMMERMAN

These candidates realize the importance of:

- efficient business practices
- justification of proposed expenditures
- easing the burden on the local taxpayer
- community participation at all levels of the education process

BUT, THE PRIMARY CONCERN MUST BE FOR THE EDUCATION OF EACH AND EVERY CHILD

"THE CHILDREN ARE WHAT IS IMPORTANT"

DR. MacQUIDDY

BOB LEMMERMAN

A STATEMENT OF ENDORSEMENT BY JOHN MERRIELL

(Former Member and President of CUSD Board of Trustees)

Never before has the selection of Trustees meant so much to the future of Campbell Union School District. The years ahead will be very difficult and will demand more of the Trustees than ever before. Election of other than the very best candidates could result in degradation that would effect our children for many years.

The publicity given to recent events will tend to make this election a referendum on those issues. We must avoid such a short-sighted attitude. The issues of the next four years will far outweigh the issues of 1970.

The Trustees we choose must have a background of experience in District functions and school operations. They must solve a greater financial dilemma then any previous board has faced. And they must make their decisions without ever losing the trust of the taxpayers and without losing sight of their educational objectives.

I believe Bob Lemmerman and Dick MacQuiddy offer our best hope for this sort of representation on the Board. I believe they will provide strength and representation of the voters in those matters which must remain under Board control.

Retiring board president notes school changes during 19 years

E. M. (DOC) ARENDS

Emerson M. (Doc)Arends has announced his retirement from the Board of Trustees of the Campbell Union High School District after 19 years of service to that Board, 10 of them as its president.

During his time on the Board, Arends has helped to guide the district as it grew from one high school and approximately 1,000 students to its present nine high schools serving over 14,000 students.

During his time of office, the Campbell Union High School District was one of the fastest growing school districts in the United States.

"Schools have changed a great deal during the last 19 years," says Arends, "schooling--process and product has moved out of the little red school house. It exists today in many forms and in many environmental conditions and it must meet many diversified tasks that did not exist 19 years ago.

"Education today must help students prepare for life in a complex society and for activities ranging from computer programming and calculating phosphorous run-off to providing community leadership, making sound voter decisions and choosing the most economical brand of toothpaste.

"We must help students prepare for further education in a highly competitive situation and at the same time, we must prepare other students for earning a living immediately after graduation. The problems are numerous and the challenges are great. The last 19 years have been both frustrating and rewarding."

Arends is retiring because "19 years is long enough. I want to spend more time with my family, with hobbies and with the business."

Business for Arends consists of operating the Campbell Lumber Company, which he has owned and operated for 20 years.

In addition he is involved in a wide range of youth and community activities including the Spartan Foundation of San Jose State College, and the college advisory board.

Letters to the Editor

SPLIT THE TICKET

Dear Editor:

The MacQuiddy-Lemmerman and King-Gilliland tickets are endorsed by past Board members who did not complete their terms in office, costing thousands of dollars in special elections.

The AFL-CIO teachers' organization (same one responsible for strikes throughout our state) has endorsed the MacQuiddy-Lemmerman ticket. Mr. Wadley, president of the Campbell Elementary Teachers Assn., has now joined the vindictive character assassination club. The Campbell Press has stated that the Neal Royer issue is the "Crux" of the current campaign. Frustration is on the rampage.

The crucial issue facing CUSD is competent, effective, and responsible Trustee leadership that can unify the divided community and shape the future of the District. The voter must choose candidates from two emotionally charged camps and one independent candidate.

I have rejected being forced into any emotional camp. I will evaluate the candidates on their leadership ability. It is my opinion that the voter must split the ticket to elect the most capable and viable candidates.

Mrs. C. Weik
1746 Silacci Dr.

SINCERE THANK YOU

Dear George:

As you are aware, the Chief John D. Morgan Fund was established early in March with the cooperation of Mr. Ed Fabbri of the Campbell branch of the Bank of America. This fund was set up after a great number of people had contacted the Morgan family and the Police Department wanting to help and it was realized that Chief Morgan's illness in all probability, would be a long-term disability.

Since the fund was established, over $10,000 has been contributed by over three hundred individuals, groups and organizations. Nearly $5,200 has been paid out for medical expenses.

These contributions range from the $2,930 raised by Mr. & Mrs. Luoto at their restaurant, a $125 share of the proceeds from the Straw Hat Pizza, a local businessman who has sent a $100 check in March and April, many, many generous checks from families and individuals; $5 brought in by a newspaper boy from his earnings, $14.14 collected by a group of children who collected returnable bottles, and one elderly lady who obviously had little, who apologized for only giving $2, and 29 cents from two very small little boys who had scraped up all the money they had to donate it for the Chief.

Because of the number of contributions, it has been impossible for Mrs. Morgan or the officers of the fund to express the appropriate appreciations to each contributor.

We, the officers of the John D. Morgan Fund, on behalf of Chief Morgan and his family, would like to use your paper as the medium to express a most sincere thank you to all the generous people of Campbell and the entire valley, both those who have contributed to this Fund, and those who have shown their regard for Chief Morgan by their concern and prayers.

It has been most gratifying to Mrs. Morgan and the officers of the Campbell Police Department to see these expressions of concern from the citizens of Campbell.

Thank you,

John B. Butler, Sgt.
Crime & Prevention Officer.

David R. Burr,
Acting Chief of Police

Dorothy Trevethan,
City Clerk

FOR ANDERSON-KING

Dear Editor:

In the CUSD Trustee campaign your endorsement of Mr. Gilliland requires objective and rational examination. Is this the best candidate, or is his "no" vote on the Neal Royer demotion the only criteria for an endorsement?

You find it very convenient to overlook his excessive absences, abstentions on important votes and lack of preparation. Above all, Mr. Gilliland sat for nearly three years while all of the problems were developing with no apparent recognition of them.

Since your opinion monopolizes the front page, will you print a parent's endorsement on the last page for Dr. Anderson and Dr. King?

Since Mr. Lemmerman represents Dr. MacQuiddy's objectives and actions, Dr. Anderson and Dr. King are the only two candidates who can bring a breath of fresh air and responsible leadership so desperately needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Williams

WARNING

Dear Editor:

Let this be a warning to other travel trailer owners. My trailer is parked on our property (but not fenced in).

Persons unknown somehow got the door opened.

All the cushions on the dinette are slashed, the mattress on the bed as well as pillows and a 50 year-old afghan slashed.

A black substance that looks like India ink was thrown on the table, sink, cabinets and paneling.

A brown liquid (??) on the ceiling. We have used the trailer twice and needless to say this cruel act of vandalism has made my husband and I both sick at heart.

We both thought we had no enemies, but this proves that "somebody" doesn't like us.

The police informed me that this act is not uncommon.

So travel trailer owners "Beware"—I will give you my name and address, but please don't publish it.

Thank you,

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

Eleven members of the Northern California Dart Assn. traveled south to Monterey for what was termed "The Great Open Dart Tournament". They also traveled back north with the "lion's share" of the trophies. The match was held at the Warehouse on Cannery Row. Eight dart boards were set along one wall and since the place seats approximately 200, there was plenty of room for the spectators.

The tournament was contested at "five round, swiss." This is a common method of running chess tournaments. Each player plays five games. The one with the most wins is first. If there is a tie, they play off.

In the match at Monterey, two players went all the way undefeated. They were Kip Fanjoy of the Scarlett La Rue team in Los Gatos and Sorn Sakbodin from the Lord Nelson V in San Francisco.

Sorn took this match two games straight. Kip was awarded second place.

The play-off for third place or the winners of four of the five games, pitted three South Bay League players against one from the H.M.S. Puma. The battle for third place was between Gaslighter Theater II's Tom Carroll and Bill Mutch of the H.M.S. Puma, with Carroll emerging the victor, two straight. The other

The other two darters in the play-off were the Gaslighter Theater II's Carl Aydelotte and Scarlett La Rue's Dave Pena.

High scores were the order of the day for the Nor-Cal darters. Kip Fanjoy popped a 180. Larry Beekley of Lord Nelson II and Sorn Sakbodin both had 160's. Gary Orechwa of the Steppenwolf in Berkeley had a 140 and a 125.

Carl Aydelotte shot a 138, Tom Carroll had a 121 and a 125, Rick Miller (Banbury Clock I) popped a 118 with Dave Pena winning a 10 dart game.

The challenge match between the Monterey Dart Club and the crew of the H.M.S. Puma saw the Monterey Club, the victors, 7-3, with the last two games not contested.

DARTS IN SCHOOL

Ted Yudacufski of the Casa Alvarado Chess Center in Monterey tells us that a couple of the schools in the Monterey area use dart boards in their mathematics departments for teaching fast addition and subtraction.

Rick Miller couldn't wait to get the information back to ITT Jennings where an over-zealous personnel man had the dart board removed as being too dangerous. This, in the light of dart boards at IBM, FMC and Lockheed.

Parnell Stratton is trying to set a dart board in the recroom at the radar site on Mt. Umunhum. I'm sure that could qualify as one of the highest dart boards in the country. I wonder if they will be tracking darts now instead of planes.

TRAVELING DARTERS

If you are going across the mountain to Santa Cruz and are looking for a dart game, you might try the Catalyst on Front St. Heading south to Monterey you can always get a match, except on Mondays, at the Casa Alvarado Chess Center, 467 Alvarado St.

Darts are also played at the Bulls Eye in Monterey and the Red Lion in Carmel.

When you get down to Southern California call the SCDA (213) 839-6972 and they will tell you what pubs are closest to you.

We recently overheard a group of darters planning a vacation in Oregon just to play darts. They will find pubs in Portland, Milwaukie, St. Helens and Corvallis.

Going east the dart centers

are Detroit, New York and Philadelphia. On the way you can play in Salt Lake City; Emporia, Kan.; Spring Park, Minn. and Chicago. There are pubs in New England and swinging south you will find the Greater Ashville Dart Assn. in North Carolina.

Heading back to the West Coast, you might try the Lemon Quiet Man in Dallas, where we understand that anyone who carries their own darts is called a hustler.

Ken's having novel Grand Opening Thursday

Tomorrow is "Tax Day" all over America, but here in Campbell, it will have a special significance. Elizabeth Raynor and Bob Holiday of the B & B Jolly Chef Restaurant Management, who recently acquired Ken's House of Pancakes here, wanted a novel Grand Opening.

Instead of the usual prize drawing with only a few winners, they came up with an "everyone shares in our Grand Opening" promotion. Starting at six a.m. Thursday "Tax Day", they're selling every meal they serve until 8 p.m. at half price. What's more, according to Bob Holiday, you don't even have to prove you paid your taxes to get a meal at half price.

The Jolly Chef management have acquired the local outlet for Ken's House of Pancakes from Kenneth Pruitt, president of the Ken's organization. They will continue to operate the business under the same name for a time, Holiday said.

Business Loses, Too

Beware The Sun!

One way skin cancer can be avoided is by using caution in the sun. Use protective lotion, wear a hat or cover up, urges the American Cancer Society.
